Cologne/Germany, 29 February 2024 | 10 weeks before its start, ANGA COM, Europe's leading Exhibition and Conference for Broadband, Television & Online, has already exceeded the threshold of 450 exhibitors from 35 countries. The gross exhibition space amounts to 25,000 sqm. The date is 14 to 16 May 2024 in Cologne / Germany. At ANGA COM, network operators, vendors and content providers will meet in Europe's largest metropolitan region for broadband and media. The ticket shop for conference and exhibition visitors is open on the website www.angacom.de.

Dr. Peter Charissé, CEO ANGA COM: "We are already at the record level of the previous year. The fiber optic boom goes on. We are particularly pleased about the numerous expansions of stand space by medium-sized vendors and the strong presence of the fiber network operators themselves. The Cologne area is and remains the heart of the German telecommunications and media industry; there is no other place in Germany and Europe where so many market leaders have such short distances."

Only a few stand spaces are still available for the exhibition. Interested companies can register here: stand booking.

The conference programme will be published in March. A preliminary list with top speakers from the broadband and media industry is available here on the ANGA COM website. The opening address will be given by Klaus Müller, President of the German Federal Network Agency. This will be followed by the Gigabit Summit with 5 CEOs from the telecommunications industry and the Media Summit with Amazon Prime Video, ProSiebenSat.1, RTL, UFA and Gaumont.

Registration for conference and exhibition visitors is possible online; there will be no ticket sales on-site. Tickets for the exhibition are available for 25.- Euros. Participation in the conference programme is possible from 140.- Euros, for young professionals (people under 30 years) for not more than 40.- Euros. On the third day, Thursday, 16 May 2024, participation in the exhibition and conference programme is completely free of charge.

All information on stand booking, sponsoring and promotion is available on the website.
